Seventeen more city bonds were received from the Salt Lake City and County, making 250 in all. An enormous amount last week showed $20,000, and the balance of the week as stated, leaving $100,000 to come.

Blatt Thomas, the stalwart Democrat and ex-captain of the 1st Utah Cavalry, arrived here yesterday. He will leave on Sunday for Ann Arbor, to take a course in law. He is well known in the city as a student of law, who felt assured that success will crown his efforts.

Oscar Simund, a workman on the Atlas bridge, was killed yesterday morning. He was standing on a plank extending between two main trusses, and when the plank slipped from its support, letting him slide to the floor, a distance of 15 feet. He was somewhat bruised on the side and Dr. Hanchett was called, but pronounced him injured too seriously. He will be able to go to work again in a few days.

When United States Marshal Miller was down south a while ago he bought a fine saddle horse at Salina, for which he paid $100. He was very much pleased with the horse and was about to bring him to Salt Lake, but he started on Saturday morning. When he reached the city, however, Lyman was disappointed of the animal by a Payson man, who claimed the horse belonged to him. It had been stolen from him recently. The Payson man got the horse and an investigation is now in progress.

County Treasurer Lynch has a force of clerks working day and night, getting out the tax notices. They will be ready for delivery in a few days. He has been his intention to have the notices delivered to property owners, wherever possible, by train, and has been successful in this through the postoffice. Aside from the economy of the move, many a faulty man would have been saved days' delay. But it now looks as though all of Treasurer Lynch's plans would be frustrated. Yesterday, instead of the delivery of first-class matter, such as the tax notices, by train, the move will be made through the postoffice, which is in violation of a federal law. As soon as the county treasurer has received an opinion and advice from the county attorney, and pending the receipt, no complaint will be made in the premises. There are nearly 40,000 tax notices and after being assorted they could be delivered by train at a cost of 2 cents each, but Uncle Sam brooks no competition to his postal institution.

State Convention Tomorrow Attracts Universal Attention.

CANDIDATES CONFIDENT

FRIENDS OF EACH ARE STANDING BY THEIR MEN.

Three Candidates For Supreme Justice—Proclamation Issued By the Acting Governor—Mud Batteries Opened On the Democratic Ticket—Populist State Convention.

As the time for the state convention, which will be held in the city tomorrow, draws near, the interest in the contest becomes more and more animated. As yet none of the delegates from the outside counties have made their appearance, but this evening several groups are expected to arrive in the city. Those from the north will come down in the evening and those from the far south may arrive at the same time, although a great many are expected to come up in the morning trains tomorrow.

As has been stated in The Herald, there is no good foundation for a prediction as to the successful candidate at this time. The delegates elected to the convention are still undecided as to their choice, and are still undecided as to whether they will declare themselves in favor of either candidate, and the great majority are still undecided as to whether they will support either of the candidates.

Correspondents and reporters have ventured upon the prediction that the contest will be a close one, and that the result will be determined by the vote of the delegates from the outside counties.

A feeling of confidence seems to prevail among the friends and supporters of all the men who are before the people for the nomination. It is felt that there is no chance for the defeat of the man of their choice.

Up to the present time, the contest has been a combination and so far as the situation now stands there is not a suggestion of a tie. The contest is a contest of the man of the people, and the man of the people is the man of the people.

The organ of the party which has adopted as its motto, "Anything to Beat the Democrats," has been engaged for several weeks in attempting to create a schism among the members of the Democratic party, and to divide the party into two camps.

There is a strong feeling exists among a great many of the delegates in favor of Hon. Aquila Nye, for the reason that he is a man of the people, and that he is a man of the people.

with law, yesterday issued a proclamation that the vacancy existing in the Sixth senatorial district, be filled at the general election on Nov. 8.

GRAHAM FOR CLERK.

Arthur E. Graham, who is employed by The Tribune, is said to be a candidate for the office of county clerk against Dr. C. Dunbar. Mr. Graham will doubtless receive the support of the newspaper on which he is engaged, for business reasons, if nothing else.

Desires to Wait.

It is now in order to fire "the first gun" of the campaign. The Republicans, being first in the field, have the floor, but it is understood that the man wants to see who the Democratic nominees for congress are before he makes any statements.

County Auditor Caine Wants Deputy Wood Removed.

SHE DECLINES TO TALK

THE VIEW GENERALLY TAKEN OF THE MATTER.

Mrs. Caine's Hostility to the Deputy Thought to Have Some Connection With His Nomination For the Place Now Held By Her—Mr. Wood, However, Is Safe.

County Auditor Caine is after the official scalp of Deputy George H. Wood. But the desires of Mrs. Caine will doubtless encounter the solid opposition of the county commissioners, and the effort to remove Deputy Wood will prove unavailing.

The appointment of Mrs. Caine's deputy was made at the beginning of her term, with the advice and consent of the county commissioners, and will require the concurrent action of the commissioners to revoke the appointment. For Deputy Wood's successor, Auditor Caine desires the appointment of a man of the people, it is understood.

MRS. CAINE'S GRIEVANCE.

Mr. Wood was in Springfield yesterday, having gone there to close up a sale of some real estate, and consequently, he was not seen by a Herald reporter. But from the county auditor's office it was learned that no charge of inefficiency or neglect of duty is made against him, but rather, it is intimated, the cause of the defeat of his nomination is the fact that he is a man of the people, and that he is a man of the people.

Wood's refusal at this early stage to either pledge or commit himself either in his favor or to whom he would give his support, is a matter of record. At the beginning of next year, he succeeds Mrs. Caine as county auditor.

THE AUDITOR REFUSES TO TALK.

Doubtless Deputy Wood will be surprised to know that yesterday persistent rumors traceable to the auditor were current in all the county offices, that Mrs. Caine was seeking to cause the removal of her faithful and popular deputy. Inquiry was made of Mrs. Caine by a Herald reporter as to the truth of the rumors, but she declined to talk.

A very pretty wedding of yesterday was that of Miss Rilla Naylor and Mr. James F. Green, which event took place at 5 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, 1271 South Ninth East street.

The decorations in the home were very effective. The parlors were done in white and green, and the windows were adorned with white and green. The bride and groom were seated at a table in the center of the room, and the guests were seated around them.
